Notice of Mediation
(O. VIIIIC, r. 1 of the Civil Procedure Code)

To.....

This case has been set for mediation on.....day of..... 20..... at..... in the fore/afternoon before Hon..... Judge/Magistrate (Mediator) and ALL PARTIES and their advocates or recognized agents are hereby ORDERED to appear. Unless an agreement disposing of this case is filed in advance of this date the mediation will occur as scheduled.

Please Note:-

- 1. All parties who must approve a settlement and at least one advocate or recognized agent for each party, if represented, must appear on the date and time before the said mediator. If the settlement must be approved by someone other than a party to the suit, the person should be available by telephone, if possible, during the scheduled mediation. Institutional parties must have an individual with the authority to settle the case present at the mediation.
2. Each party or advocate or recognized agent must bring to the mediation (1) if damages are requested, an outline of how they have been or should be calculated (including, if appropriate, the time, period, and rates of interest), and (2) relevant documentation, such as appraisals, receipts, and records.
3. All proceedings at the mediation, including any statement made or document prepared by any party, advocate, or other participants, are confidential and will not be disclosed to the trial judge or magistrate or affect the case if it is not settled at this time. No party shall be bound by anything said or done in mediation unless a settlement is reached. If a settlement is reached, the agreement will be put in writing and will be binding upon the parties to the agreement.
4. In the event that a party and, if represented, his advocate do not appear at the mediation, the Court shall make such orders against the defaulting party, agent or advocate as it deems fit, including an order for costs, unless there are exceptional circumstances for not making such orders.

Statement of Understanding

(O. VIIIIC, r.1 of the Civil Procedure Code)

Hon.....Judge/Magistrate has been assigned to mediate your case. She/he will serve as a neutral party to help you resolve your dispute. He/she will not act as an attorney or advocate for any party, nor will he/she be the trial Judge/Magistrate if agreement is not reached and your case proceeds to trial.

The parties and advocates whose signatures appear below agree that all proceedings at the settlement conference, on this date and any/ all subsequent meetings or conferences including any statement made or document prepared for the conference(s) by any party, advocate or other participants, are privileged and confidential, and shall not be disclosed in any subsequent proceedings or construed for any purpose as an admission against interest. The phrase documents prepared for the conference by any party, advocate or other participant shall not be deemed to apply to any settlement agreement reached. Any settlement agreement reached shall be reduced into writing and, when entered on court record and signed by the judge or magistrate and all parties to the agreement, shall be binding. The parties agree not to summon the mediator as a witness or to produce any documents submitted to the mediator in any subsequent proceedings. In no event will a mediator voluntarily testify on behalf of a party.

Proclamation of Sale (Immovable Property)
(O. XXI, r. 66 of the Civil Procedure Code)

Suit No..... of, decided by the of in which(the Judgment-Creditor/Debtor) was plaintiff and(the Judgment-Creditor/Debtor) was defendant. Notice is hereby given that, under rule 64 of Order XXI of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1966, an order has been passed by this Court for the sale of the attached property mentioned in the annexed schedule, in satisfaction of the claim of the decree-holder in the suit mentioned in the margin, amounting with costs and interest up to date of sale to the sum of T.shs.....

The sale will be by public auction, and the property will be put up for sale in the lots specified in the schedule.

The sale will be of the property of the judgment-debtor above-named as mentioned in the schedule below; and the liabilities and claims attaching to the said property, so far as they have been ascertained, are those specified in the schedule against each lot.

In the absence of any order of postponement, the sale will be held by commencing at o'clock on theday ofat

In the event, however, of the debt above specified and of the costs of the sale being tendered or paid before the knocking down of any lot, the sale will be stopped.

At the sale the public generally are invited to bid, either personally or by duly authorized agent. No bid by, or on behalf of, the judgment-creditors above-mentioned, however, will be accepted, nor will any sale to them be valid without the express permission of the Court previously given.

FURTHER CONDITIONS OF SALE:

1. The particulars specified in the schedule below have been stated to the best of the information of the Court, but the Court will not be answerable for any error, mis-statement or omission in this proclamation.
2. The amount by which the biddings are to be increased shall be determined by the officer conducting the sale. In the event of any dispute arising as to the amount bid, or as to the bidder, the lot shall at once be again put up to auction.
3. The highest bidder shall be declared to be the purchaser of any lot, provided always that he is legally qualified to bid, and provided that it shall be in the discretion of the

Civil Procedure Code (Approved Forms)

- Court or officer holding the sale to decline acceptance of the highest bid when the price offered appears so clearly inadequate as to make it advisable to do so.
4. For reasons recorded, it shall be in the discretion of the officer conducting the sale to adjourn it subject always to the provisions of rule 69 of Order XXI.
 5. In the case of movable property, the price of each lot shall be paid at the time of sale or as soon after as the officer holding the sale directs, and in default of payment the property shall forthwith be again put up and re-sold.
 6. In the case of immovable property, the person declared to be the purchaser shall pay immediately after such declaration a deposit of 25 per cent. on the amount of his purchase-money to the officer conducting the sale, and in default of such deposit the property and forthwith be put up again and re-sold.
 7. The full amount of the purchase-money shall be paid by the purchaser before the Court closes on the fifteenth day after the sale of the property, exclusive of such day, or if the fifteenth day be a Sunday or other holiday, then on the first office day after the fifteenth day.
 8. In default of payment of the balance of purchase-money within the period allowed, the property shall be re-sold after the issue of a fresh notification of sale. The deposit, after defraying the expenses of the sale, may, if the Court thinks fit, be forfeited to Government and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may be subsequently sold.

Notice is hereby given that, under rule 64 of Order XXI of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1966, an order has been passed by this Court for the sale of the attached property mentioned in the annexed schedule, in satisfaction of the claim of the decree-holder in the suit mentioned in the margin, amounting with costs and interest up to date of sale to the sum of T.shs.....

The sale will be by public auction, and the property will be put up for sale in the lots specified in the schedule.

The sale will be of the property of the judgment-debtor above-named as mentioned in the schedule below; and the liabilities and claims attaching to the said property, so far as they have been ascertained, are those specified in the schedule against each lot.

In the absence of any order of postponement, the sale will be held by commencing ato'clock on theday of at

In the event, however, of the debt above specified and of the costs of the sale being tendered or paid before the knocking down of any lot, the sale will be stopped.

At the sale the public generally are invited to bid, either personally or by duly authorized agent. No bid by, or on behalf of, the judgment-creditors above-mentioned, however, will be accepted, nor will any sale to them be valid without the express permission of the Court previously given.

FURTHER CONDITIONS OF SALE:

1. The particulars specified in the schedule below have been stated to the best of the information of the Court, but the Court will not be answerable for any error, mis-statement or omission in this proclamation.
2. The amount by which the biddings are to be increased shall be determined by the officer conducting the sale. In the event of any dispute arising as to the amount bid, or as to the bidder, the lot shall at once be again put up to auction.

Civil Procedure Code (Approved Forms)

GN. No. 388 (contd...)

3. The highest bidder shall be declared to be the purchaser of any lot, provided always that he is legally qualified to bid, and provided that it shall be in the discretion of the Court or officer holding the sale to decline acceptance of the highest bid when the price offered appears so clearly inadequate as to make it advisable to do so.
4. For reasons recorded, it shall be in the discretion of the officer conducting the sale to adjourn it subject always to the provisions of rule 69 of Order XXI.
5. In the case of movable property, the price of each lot shall be paid at the time of sale or as soon after as the officer holding the sale directs, and in default of payment the property shall forthwith be again put up and re-sold.
6. In the case of immovable property, the person declared to be the purchaser shall pay immediately after such declaration a deposit of 25 per cent. on the amount of his purchase-money to the officer conducting the sale, and in default of such deposit the property and forthwith be put up again and re-sold.
7. The full amount of the purchase-money shall be paid by the purchaser before the Court closes on the fifteenth day after the sale of the property, exclusive of such day, or if the fifteenth day be a Sunday or other holiday, then on the first office day after the fifteenth day.
8. In default of payment of the balance of purchase-money within the period allowed, the property shall be re-sold after the issue of a fresh notification of sale. The deposit, after defraying the expenses of the sale, may, if the Court thinks fit, be forfeited to Government and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may be subsequently sold.
