TYA. 287

THE EXCHEQUER AND AUDIT ORDINANCE
(No. 21 of 1961)

NOTICE

Under section 29

DELEGATION OF POWER TO WRITE OFF LOSSES

WHEREAS the Minister for Finance has been authorized under the provisions of section 29 of the Exchequer and Audit Ordinance to exercise full powers to write off losses of public money and stores:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, PAUL BOMANI, Minister for Finance, hereby delegate to the officers holding the posts set out in the Schedule hereto power to write off losses of public money and stores to the extent set out in the Schedule hereto in respect of any one loss or deficiency or series of losses or deficiencies brought to light at one and the same time:

Provided that no officer shall exercise such power of write off where—

- (i) the loss or deficiency is due to the negligence, or is facilitated by the negligence, of any person employed by Government;
- (ii) the loss or deficiency is due to fraud or theft on the part of any person employed by Government; or
- (iii) the loss or deficiency is facilitated by failure on the part of a person employed by Government to carry out the checks required of him by any regulations relating to the control of cash and stores;

unless the value of the stores lost or deficient has been made good by the person through whose negligence the loss or deficiency occurred or was facilitated, or by the person responsible for the fraud or theft, or by the person whose failure to carry out the required checks facilitated the loss or deficiency.
