THE NATIONAL PROVIDENT FUND ACT, 1964

(No. 36 OF 1964)

REGULATIONS

Under section 48

THE NATIONAL PROVIDENT FUND (SEAMEN) REGULATIONS, 1965

1. These Regulations may be cited as the National Provident Fund (Seamen) Regulations, 1965.

2.—(1) In these Regulations—
“seaman” means an employee who is a member of the crew of any ship.
(2) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared in respect of the definition of employee in the Act that an agent of a ship may include any person or persons supplying seamen to masters or owners of ships.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of a seaman's contract of service the contribution periods for seamen shall be in months and wages paid under a seaman's contract of service shall be allocated or apportioned to the contribution periods so determined.

4. Notwithstanding that the contribution periods for seamen are reckoned in months, a statutory contribution in respect of a seaman may be paid to the Fund at the time the seaman is paid his wages for a contribution period in accordance with his contract of service, if the time of payment of such wages is a date later than that upon which the statutory contribution for the contribution period in question would ordinarily have been payable.

National Provident Fund (Registration of Seamen)

G.N. No. 176 (contd.)

5. In the construction of the term wages as it applies to seamen—

(a) the following shall be included:—

- (i) all allotments of wages by a seaman;
- (ii) all advances of wages paid to seamen.

(b) the following shall not be included: —

- (i) sums other than those mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) above, deducted from wages in accordance with the seaman's contract of service or under the authority of a written law relating to shipping;
- (ii) any portion of a seaman's wages expended in accordance with any written law relating to shipping for the repatriation from or the maintenance of that seaman in, a foreign port.

6. The Director shall have discretion to waive payment of unpaid statutory contributions in respect of any seaman who deserts his ship in a foreign port.

7. The provisions of the Act respecting temporary employees shall not apply to seamen.
