

G.N. No. 383 (contd.)

(2) The person appointed to be the Director of Audit before the commencement of sections 1 to 8 of this Order shall be deemed to have been appointed under Article 10 of the principal Order as enacted by this Order.

Transitional 9.—(1) The Governor may, by order published in the Gazette, at any time within twelve months after the commencement of this section provide that any existing law shall be read and construed with such adaptations or modifications as may appear to him to be necessary or expedient for bringing that law into conformity with the provisions of the principal Order, as amended by this Order, or with the provisions of this section, or with the provisions of the Tanganyika Royal Instructions, 1960, or otherwise for giving effect or enabling effect to be given to those provisions; and any such law shall have effect accordingly from such date as may be specified in the order, not being a date earlier than the commencement of this section.

(2) Any order made under subsection (1) of this section may be amended or revoked by a further order made in like manner.

(3) In this section "existing law" means any law in force or having effect immediately before the commencement of this section that was enacted under the Tanganyika (Legislative Council) Order in Council, 1926(a), as amended from time to time, and includes any instrument made in pursuance of any such law.
