10 of 1986 s. 24
6 of 1999 s. 67

13.—(1) There shall be paid annually to an urban authority by way of grants from the public revenue of the United Republic the following amounts, for which payment there shall be no further authorisation other than this section, that is to say—

- (a) such sum as the Minister may, after consultation with the Minister responsible for finance, determine as being the costs incurred by the urban authority in the provision and maintenance of public health services, educational services, construction, reconstruction and maintenance of roads and the construction and maintenance of sewerage and agricultural extension services;
- (b) a sum equivalent to the total expenditure incurred by the urban authority in connection with outbreaks of infectious diseases; and
- (c) a sum equivalent to thirty-three and one-third per centum, in the case of a municipal council and, in the case of a town council equivalent to fifty per centum, of the total annual salaries of all heads of departments of the urban authority concerned.

(2) The Government may, subject to such general or specific conditions, limitations or exceptions as it may impose or make, make such grants to any urban authority relating to the development or maintenance of any services within its area as it may determine.

(3) There shall be paid annually to a district council by way of grants from the public revenue of the United Republic the following amounts, for which payment there shall be no further authorisation other than this section, that is to say—

- (a) such sum as the Minister may, after consultation with the Minister responsible for finance, determine as being costs incurred by the district council on the construction, reconstruction or maintenance of roads within the area of the authority which are classified under the Highways Act as district roads;

- (b) a sum equivalent to such percentage, as the Minister may, after consultation with the Minister responsible for finance, determine, of the total annual salaries of any officer employed and paid by the authority whose appointment and salary are approved for this purposes by the Minister;
  - (c) such sum as the Minister may direct in respect of the recurrent cost to the authority of maintaining public health services in the area of the authority and of measures taken outside the area of authority and approved by the Minister for the prevention and abatement of nuisances causing danger or injury to health within the area;
  - (d) a sum equivalent to all expenditure incurred by the authority in connection with outbreaks of infectious diseases;
  - (e) such sum as the Minister may, after consultation with the Minister responsible for finance, determine as being the costs incurred by the district council on the provision and maintenance of water supply services and educational services within the area of the authority; and
  - (f) such sum as the Minister may, after consultation with the Minister responsible for finance, determine as being the costs incurred by the district council on the provisions and maintenance of agriculture and livestock extension services within the area of the district authority.
- (4) Payments of the amounts specified in paragraphs (a) and (e) of subsection (3) shall be subject to the conditions that-
- (a) the Minister approves the standard of construction or reconstruction, or of construction and maintenance of the roads in question before the costs on it is incurred;
  - (b) subject to the direction of the Minister in that behalf, provision shall be made in the annual estimates of the authority for recovery of the remaining moiety of the

- costs so incurred, or where the moiety is to be met from loan funds, from the recovery of interest and loan charges out of rates to be imposed by the authority; and
- (c) the authority shall cause a special account to be kept of the costs and expenditure so incurred in connection with outbreaks of infectious diseases and, where any question arises as to the correctness or admissibility of any charge against the special account, the decision of the Minister shall be final.

(5) The Government may, subject to such general or specific conditions, limitations or exceptions as it may impose, make such grant to any rural authority relating to the development or maintenance of any services within its area as it may determine.

Block grants to local government authorities
Act No.
6 of 1999 s. 68

14.-(1) There shall be paid annually to an urban authority by way of block grants from the public revenue of the United Republic the following amounts, for which payment there shall be no further authorisation other than this section, such sum as the Minister may, after consultation with the Minister responsible for finance, determine as being the costs to be incurred by the urban authority for development and maintenance of services particularly education, health, water, roads and agriculture.

(2) There shall be paid annually to a district council by way of block grants from the public revenue of the United Republic the following amount for which payment there shall be no further authorisation other than this section, such sum as the Minister may, after consultation with the Minister responsible for finance, determine as being costs to be incurred by the district council in the provision of essential social service; particularly education, health, water, roads and agriculture.

(3) Payment of block grants under subsections (1) and (2) may vary from one local authority to another depending on the grades and standards as may be prescribed by the Minister.

(4) The Government may, where it is satisfied that a particular local authority has a weak revenue base, pay to that local authority an equalisation grant to enable it to provide, maintain and develop other necessary services within its area.

(5) The Minister shall, by regulation published in the Gazette, prescribe the criteria for the provision of equalisation grant.

Power to borrow

15.—(1) A local government authority may, with the approval of the Minister given after consultation with the Minister responsible for finance, raise within the United Republic loans for such amounts, from such sources, in such manner, for such purposes and upon such conditions as the authority concerned may deem fit subject to subsection (2).

(2) Loans raised under this section may be secured upon the revenue of the authority or by mortgage or charge of any land or premises in its ownership or disposition or may be secured both upon such revenues and by such mortgage or charge and shall be repaid within such period as the Minister may approve.

(3) Where any interest or any payment of capital due on any loan remains unpaid for three months after a demand for it has been served on the authority in writing by the person entitled to do so, the Minister may—

(a) order that a rate necessary to produce the sum due be levied upon and collected from the rate-payers of the area either immediately or at such date as he shall order, and for the purpose of raising that sum the Minister shall in addition have the same power as the authority concerned of making and levying a rate under this Act or any other written law; and

(b) where requested so to do by that person, order the sale of any property, on which the loan is secured.

(4) The Minister shall have and may exercise all powers conferred upon him by subsection (3) in any case where a loan made to an authority has been guaranteed by the Government and where under the terms of that guarantee the Government has made to or to the order of the lender payment of capital or interest due on the loan.

(5) The power of the Minister under this section of making and levying a rate and issuing a requisition may be exercised at any time.

[s. 14]

Overdrafts

16.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), a local government authority may, with the approval of the Minister, obtain advances from banks by overdraft upon the credit of the authority.

(2) An overdraft shall not at any time in any circumstances exceed the income of the authority in the previous financial year.

PART III

MAKING AND COLLECTION OF RATES

Power to impose
taxes and rates
Acts Nos.
17 of 1985
12 of 1999 s. 26
15 of 2003 s. 35
15 of 2004 s. 42

17.—(1) Subject to this Act and to rules made by the Minister under this section, a local government authority may make by-laws imposing such rates to be paid by the inhabitants or such categories of inhabitants, for, on or in connection with such services, things, matters or acts specified in the Schedule as the authority may describe or specify in the by-laws in question.

(2) Notwithstanding the powers to impose rates, charges, levies, fees or dues conferred upon local government authorities under sections 6, 7, 8 and 9, the local government authorities shall not impose rates to be paid by the inhabitants or such categories of inhabitants, for, on or in connection with such services, matters or acts specified in the third column of the Schedule.

(3) The Minister shall, after consultation with the Minister responsible for finance, make rules, to be known as rating rules, prescribing limitations and imposing conditions upon which any local authority or category of local authorities may make legislation imposing rates under this section.

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred in the preceding provisions of this section, the Minister may in rules made under subsection (1), provide for procedures to be complied with by local government authorities for the purposes of imposing and collecting rates in their respective areas.

(5) The Minister may, by order in the Gazette, exempt any category of persons from payment of any rate chargeable under this Act.

(6) An order made under this section shall be laid before the National Assembly.

(7) The rates imposed in relation with the service levy shall be payable in lieu of the industrial cess and the corporate entities paying service levy shall not be liable to pay the produce cess.

[s. 16]

Duty to make sufficient rates

18. Every district council and every urban authority shall, subject to this Act, make or levy such rates as will ensure the raising of income from rates which, in combination with income from other sources of revenue, will be sufficient to provide for such part of the estimated total expenditure to be incurred by it during the period in respect of which the rate is made or levied as is to be met out of money raised by rates including in that expenditure any additional amount as is, in the opinion of the authority, required to cover expenditure previously incurred or to meet contingencies or to defray any expenditure which may fall to be defrayed before the date on which the money to be received in respect of the next subsequent rate will become available; except that an authority which submits for the necessary approval a proposal to make or levy a rate which complies with the requirements contained in this section shall be deemed to have complied therewith.

[s. 17]

Electronic
revenue collection payment and management systems
Act No.
16 of 2015 s. 27

19.—(1) For the purpose of better revenue control, a local government authority may, among other means of revenue collection, payment and management, use electronic revenue collection, payment and management systems.

(2) The Minister may, upon consultation with the Minister responsible for finance, make rules prescribing procedures for electronic means of revenue collection and payment.

[s. 17A]

Methods of rating
Act No.
18 of 1983 s. 3

20.—(1) Subject to the prior approval of the Minister, and to the provisions of subsection (2), a local government authority may make and levy an annual rate on every person of or above the age of eighteen years who is a person in respect of whom, or a member of a category or description of persons in respect of which the functions of the authority are exercisable and who resides or owns property in its area of jurisdiction, based upon any one or more of the following systems, that is to say—

- (a) a uniform rate per capita;
- (b) a graduated rate per capita;
- (c) a rate based on the value of immovable property situated within the area of the authority or in any part of that area;
- (d) a rate assessed on the earnings, livelihood or possessions of persons in the area liable to payment of rate; or
- (e) a rate based on the fact of the ownership of immovable property situated in a specified area or at a specified place within the area of the authority.

(2) This section or in this Part shall not be construed as exempting any person from paying rate under this section for the reason only that a tax or other payment has been or is liable to be paid or made to the Government in respect of any property, income, business or activity.

[s. 18]

Publication of rate

21. Notice of every rate made under section 20 shall be given by the local government authority making the rate within fifteen days after the passing of a resolution making the rate, and the rate shall not be valid unless a notice of it is duly given in the manner for the time being prescribed by rules made under section 37.

[s. 19]

Duty to pay rates 22.—(1) For purposes of this section, the term “resident” means any person who habitually resides in the area of jurisdiction of a local government authority.

(2) It shall be the duty of every resident of a local government authority to pay rates or duties which he is by or under this Act required to pay to the authority for the purposes of ensuring the development of the area in accordance with the purposes and provisions of the Act, unless he is otherwise exempted from payment of the rate or duty by this Act or by the authority concerned under this Act.

[s. 20]

Date and place of payment 23. Where a local government authority gives notice of a rate in accordance with section 21, every person liable to pay the rate shall pay the amount of the rate to a rate collector or other person duly authorised or appointed by the authority in question to collect and receive the rate at such time and at such place as may be specified by the authority.

[s. 21]

Exemption from and remission of rates
Act No. 6 of 1999 s. 69 24.—(1) Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Act to the contrary—

- (a) where a person who would otherwise be liable for payment of a uniform or graduated rate to any local government authority produces to the chief executive officer of that authority or rate collector appointed by the authority a valid receipt issued by or on behalf of any other local government authority evidencing the payment by him of the uniform or graduated rate levied by that other authority for the current year, being a rate which he was liable to pay under the provisions of this Act, he shall not be liable for payment of that uniform or graduated rate for that year levied by the first-mentioned local government authority except to the extent, if any, by which the uniform or graduated rate exceeds that to which the receipt relates; and

- (b) the following tenements shall be exempt from assessment and rating under this Act, namely-
- (i) all lands and buildings appropriated exclusively for purposes of public worship;
  - (ii) cemeteries and burial grounds;
  - (iii) charitable and educational institutions; and
  - (iv) any tenement specifically exempted by the council in writing except that the Council shall in making the exemption ensure that there are other sources of revenue to compensate for the revenue of exempted tenement and the exemption is immediately reported to the Regional Commissioner and copied to the external auditor.

(2) A local government authority may reduce or remit payment of any rate, on account of the inability to pay it; or exempt, any person or category of persons specified in subsection (3), from liability to pay the rate.

(3) The persons or categories of persons specified for the purposes of subsection (2) are-

- (a) a person who is completely dependent on others for his livelihood;
  - (b) women who are completely dependent on their husbands or other persons for their livelihood;
  - (c) full-time students of the age of or above eighteen years who, for inability to work, are dependent on others for their livelihood;
  - (d) old persons of or above the age of sixty years who have no visible sources of income;
  - (e) disabled persons who have no visible sources of income;
- and

(f) a person, or other category of persons, whom the local government authority thinks it fit, for any reason, that they should be exempted.

(4) The exercise by a local government authority of the powers conferred by subsection (2) shall be without prejudice to the duty imposed on that authority by section 18 to raise income from rates which is sufficient to meet its annual budgetary requirements.

(5) A sum paid as rates imposed under any written law in respect of premises within the area of a local government authority payable by person resident within that area in respect of the year in which the local government authority is established shall be deemed to be sums paid on account of rates to be made and levied by the authority in respect of that year.

Claim for amount of rate

25.—(1) Where any person fails to pay any rate for which he is liable on or before the date on which it is payable, the local government authority concerned may recover it as a civil debt together with costs and such penalty as may be prescribed by rules made under section 37.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), in any proceeding to recover a rate or a penalty, the rate books and other records of the local government authority concerned and all certified copies of entries purporting to be made in them signed by the Chairman shall, upon their production be prima facie evidence of the rate, and of the matters stated in them, without any evidence that the requirements of this Act have been complied with.

(3) It shall be competent for any person proceeded against under this section to offer evidence to prove the contrary.

(4) A rate or dues under the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be a local rate within the meaning of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 39 of the Bankruptcy Act.

[s. 23]

Cap. 25

Penalty for failure to pay rates and for willful misrepresentation
Act No. 6 of 1999 s. 70

26.—(1) A person who neglects, fails or refuses to pay any rate payable by him to a local government authority under this Act, commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, unless he proves that the apparent neglect, failure or refusal was due to provable circumstances beyond his control.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not, in any proceedings under that subsection, be construed as making available to any able-bodied person the defence of ignorance of or failure to remember the obligation to pay the rate concerned, nor shall poverty as such be available as an alternative or original defence for failure or total inability to pay rates.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not affect or be construed as affecting the right of a local government authority to recover by suit any penalty prescribed by rules made under section 37 of this Act.

(4) A person who wilfully misrepresents his rateable capacity in any way, commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

[s. 24]

Penalty for inciting person to refuse to pay rate, etc.
Act No. 6 of 1999 s. 71

27. A person who without lawful justification or excuse incites any person to refuse to pay any rate payable by him under this Act after it becomes due and payable, or who incites or assists any person to misrepresent his rateable capacity commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

[s. 25]

Unauthorised collection of rates
Act No. 6 of 1999 s. 72

28. A person who-

- (a) not being authorised under this Act or by the local government authority concerned or by any rate collector so to do, collects or attempts to collect any rate under this Act; or

- (b) collects or attempts to collect any rates other than rates described in this Act or authorised by any other written law, commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a period of six months or to both.

[s. 26]

Duty to give information

29.—(1) A person required to give any information shall give all such information as may be reasonably required of him by any local government authority, rate collector, or assessment committee appointed under section 33, with a view to obtaining information for the assessment or collection of rates.

(2) For purposes of obtaining information under subsection (1), a local government authority, rate collector or assessment committee, as the case may be, may require any person to attend before it or him at such time and place as it or he may appoint.

[s. 27]

Refusal to give information
Act No.
6 of 1999 s. 73

30.—(1) A person who, having been required to give information under section 29, wilfully misleads or attempts to mislead any local government authority, or its agent, rate collector or assessment committee on any matter connected with the collection of a rate commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

(2) A person who, having been required to give information under section 29, neglects, refuses or, without lawful excuse, fails to give the information required commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand shillings or to a term not exceeding three months or to both.

(3) A person who, having been required to attend before a local government authority, rate collector or assessment committee under section 29, neglects, fails or refuses to do so, attend at the time and place appointed by the local government authority, rate collector or assessment committee, as the case may be, commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both.

[s. 28]

Rate collectors

31.—(1) A local government authority responsible for the collection of rates may, in writing, appoint any suitable person to be a rate collector in respect of any area or part of an area.

(2) It shall be the duty of every rate collector to—

- (a) furnish in writing to the local government authority concerned a nominal roll of all rateable persons or tenements, as the case may be, in the area or part of an area for which he is appointed;
- (b) collect and receive from each person liable for the payment of the rates in the area or part of an area for which he is appointed the rates payable by each such person;
- (c) pay all amounts so collected to the local government authority concerned; and
- (d) report to the local government authority concerned the name of any person who has failed to pay the amount due from him for the rate.

[s. 29]

Offences by rate
collectors
Act No.
6 of 1999 s. 74

32. A rate collector appointed under this Act who—

- (a) fails to deposit with the local government authority concerned any such sum of money collected by him as rates;
- (b) knowingly demands from any person an amount in excess of the duly assessed rates;
- (c) recklessly or knowingly renders false returns, whether orally or in writing, of the numbers of rate payers or the amount of rates collected or received by him; or

(d) wilfully fails to carry out any duty imposed on him as a rate collector by subsection (2) of section 31, commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

[s. 30]

Appointment of agents
Act No.
6 of 1999 s. 75

33.—(1) A local government authority may, subject to the provisions of this Act—

- (a) appoint a person or persons as agents for the collection of rates imposed by the authority on the person or persons who are not within its area of jurisdiction; and
- (b) enter into such agreement as it may deem necessary with a person or persons so appointed as to the performance of the functions and to his remuneration.

(2) A person appointed as agent under this section shall be deemed, within the area for which he is appointed, to have all the powers as to collection of rates as the authority appointing him may exercise and may sue for the recovery of the amount of rates due with full costs of the suit, in any court of competent jurisdiction in the area for which he is appointed; except that the power of recovery of rates exercisable under this subsection shall be in addition to the powers exercisable in that behalf under the provisions of section 25.

(3) Section 32 shall apply to any agent who collects any sum as rates under the provisions of this section.

7 of 2023 s. 43
Cap. 438
Cap. 289

34.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act—

- (a) the Tanzania Revenue Authority shall have the obligation to evaluate, assess, collect and account for property rate up to the 31st December, 2023 thereafter the obligations shall vest in the local government authorities; and
- (b) local government authorities shall have the obligation to collect and account for advertisement fees for billboards, posters and hoarding.

(2) In the enforcement or recovery of property rate the Tanzania Revenue Authority shall apply mutatis mutandis the powers of recovery stipulated under the provisions of the Tax Administration Act and the Local Government Authorities (Rating) Act.

(3) Where the Minister responsible for finance has declared a township authority, urban authority or as the case may be, geographical area, the Tanzania Revenue Authority shall make valuation of all rateable properties for purposes of establishing the rate payers and rates collectables and prepare a rates payers list thereof.

(4) The rates payers list shall show in respect of each rate payer-

- (a) the name and address of the rate payer;
- (b) the area and situation of the rateable property, matter or activity; and
- (c) any other information as the authority may consider necessary.

Cap. 289

(5) In preparing the rates payers list under this section, the Tanzania Revenue Authority shall have regard to the provisions of the Local Government Authorities (Rating) Act relating to the preparation of rates.

(6) The Minister responsible for finance may, by order published in the Gazette,-

- (a) prescribe fees for advertisement through billboards, posters or hoarding for local government authorities; and
- (b) provide for the management and disbursement of fees and property rates under this section.

[s. 31A]

35. A local government authority may appoint such assessment committee or committees as it thinks fit for the purpose of assessing the liability of any person or persons for payment of any rate levied or to be levied under this Act.

Deduction of rates from wages of employees

36.—(1) A local government authority may, by notice in writing, require an employer, who carries on his business in the area of the authority, to deduct the rate payable to the authority by any persons employed by him or any category of them from the salaries, wages and other moneys due by such employer to those persons, and to apply the amount so deducted to the authority or to a rate collector nominated by the authority in the notice.

(2) Every notice-

(a) shall-

- (i) inform the employer of the amount of the rate payable by each of his employees concerned;
- (ii) require the issue by the employer to each person by whom the rate is payable of an acknowledgement of every sum deducted by the employer, and the issue by the employer of a receipt to every person by whom the rate is payable and from whose salary, wages or other moneys the full amount of rate due from that person has been deducted; and
- (iii) specify the date by which any sums deducted shall be paid by the employer to the authority or to a rate collector nominated by the council in the notice; and

(b) may-

- (i) require the deduction of the rate to be made in one lumpsum or in not more than three instalments;
- (ii) require the making of deductions before the date on which the rate is payable; and
- (iii) include such other provisions as may be necessary or convenient for the more effectual collection of the rate by means of deductions by employers and payment of the amount payable to the authority or to a rate collector nominated by the authority.

(3) The local government authority may by notice in writing to the employer amend, cancel or replace any notice issued under subsection (1).

(4) Subject to subsection (5), an employer required to deduct a rate under this section shall deduct and retain the rate, and he shall pay the amounts deducted to the local government authority or to a rate collector nominated by the authority.

(5) Where any employee produces to the employer a statement issued by the local government authority stating that he is exempt from the liability to pay the rate, or a valid receipt issued by the local government authority acknowledging the payment of a rate by the employee to the authority for the current year, the employer shall report the matter to the authority and shall not deduct any sum in respect of the rate from the salary, wages or other moneys due to the employee after the date of the production of the receipt or statement unless as directed by the authority, and the authority shall not give any such directions unless the receipt relates to an amount less than the total rate payable by the employee to the authority for that year or the statement relating to the exemption has ceased to be of effect.

(6) Where an employer required to deduct a rate or any installment of a rate under this section fails, refuses or neglects to do so in accordance with the notice under which the deductions are made, he shall himself be liable, for the amount which, but for his default, should have been so deducted, and a local government authority may recover the amount as a debt due to the authority, together with full costs of suit, in a competent court.

(7) An employer who, having made any deduction under this section, fails without reasonable cause to pay the amount to the authority or to a rate collector nominated by the authority in accordance with the notice under which the deductions are made, commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings and, in addition, to an amount equal to the amount of any deduction which he shall have made and not so paid.

(8) A person who fraudulently alters or defaces any such acknowledgement or receipt as is referred to in subparagraph

(ii) of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both.

(9) Subject to subsection (10), an employer and any employee or servant of an employer engaged in the making of deductions under the provisions of this section, who omits without reasonable cause to give any such acknowledgement or receipt as is referred to in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) in accordance with the provisions of the notice under which the deductions are made, or in any manner delays or defers without reasonable cause the giving of it or, with intent to defraud, gives such an acknowledgement or receipt for an amount other than that deducted, commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months or to both.

(10) An employer who employs any person for the making of deduction under this section does not commit an offence under subsection (9) unless the act or omission constituting the offence was done or omitted on his express instructions.

[s. 33]

Rules relating to rates and rating

37.-(1) The Minister may make rules-

- (a) prescribing the notice to be given by a local government authority of its intention to make and levy a rate or impose a tax;
- (b) prescribing the manner in which notice of a rate shall be published under section 21;
- (c) prescribing the procedure for the appointment of assessment committees under section 33, and the procedure, powers and duties of those committees;
- (d) prescribing the method of assessment of property or possessions for the purposes of any rate or tax to be levied or imposed under this Act;

- (e) providing for the hearing of appeals against any such assessment; and
- (f) prescribing the penalty, which shall not exceed half the amount of the rate due and unpaid, which may be recovered under subsection (1) of section 25.

(2) The Regional Commissioner may issue an order applying to a particular local government authority for all the purposes set forth in subsection (1) except that set out in paragraph (f).

(3) An order made by a Regional Commissioner under subsection (2) shall be published in such manner as is customary for the community concerned and shall not be required to, but may be published in the Gazette.

(4) In the event of any conflict between rules made by the Minister under subsection (1) and orders made by a Regional Commissioner under subsection (2), the former, irrespective of the date of their making, shall for all purposes prevail.

[s. 34]

Legal proceedings 38. Proceedings either to enforce the payment of any rate or tax payable under the provisions of this Act or for the recovery of any penalties under the provisions of this Part or any subsidiary legislation made pursuant to them may, without prejudice to the right of any other person or authority to institute criminal proceedings, be taken by local government authority responsible for the collection of the rate or tax before any court of competent jurisdiction.

Estimates
Act No.
6 of 1999 s. 81

50.—(1) Every local government authority shall, not less than two months before the beginning of every financial year, at a meeting specially convened for the purpose, pass a detailed budget, in this Act called “annual budget”, of the estimates of the amounts respectively-

- (a) expected to be received; and
- (b) expected to be disbursed, by the authority during the financial year, and whenever circumstances so require, an authority may pass a supplementary budget in any financial year.

(2) The chief executive officer shall for the purposes of obtaining advice regarding national policies, programmes and financial regulations, arrange a meeting with the Regional Secretariat at any time before the passing of the councils’ annual or supplementary budget.

(3) The annual budget and every supplementary budget shall be in such form and include such details as the Minister may direct.

(4) Where a budget is not approved or disapproved by the local government authority before the commencement of the financial year for which it is prepared, the chief executive officer of the authority concerned may authorise expenditure, in accordance with the budget up to fifteen percent of its revenue for the preceding year.

(5) Where the local government authority approves the annual budget or supplementary budget as a whole, the budget as approved shall be binding on the local government authority, which shall confine its disbursement within the items and amounts contained in the applicable estimates as approved.

(6) Subject to the provisions of any financial memoranda relating to it, a local government authority may by resolution-

- (a) adjust expenditure limits to take account of circumstances not reasonably foreseeable at the time the budget was prepared; and
- (b) authorise the expenditure of money appropriated for any one purpose in an approved budget on any other purpose contained in the budget.

(7) Where a local government authority has not, within three months of the beginning of the financial year, approved its budget, the Minister shall take such appropriate action as he considers necessary including the power to direct that the council shall not make any expenditure without his approval.

(8) Where at anytime during the implementation of the annual or supplementary budget it appears to the Minister that a local government authority is in contravention of any national policies, guidelines or standards, he shall take appropriate measures to ensure that these are complied with and, for that purpose, may issue directives for the implementation of those measures, and such directives shall be binding on the local government authority.

C: Audits

Audit of accounts Act No. 6 of 1999 s. 83

52.—(1) The accounts of every district council, and of every urban authority, shall be audited internally by an internal auditor employed by the authority concerned, and the external auditor for each of those authorities shall be the Controller and Auditor-General.

(2) The accounts of a township authority shall be audited by such auditor as may be appointed in that behalf by the Minister, or by a public officer or local authority authorised by the Minister.

(3) The accounts of a village council shall be audited by such public officer or organisations as the district council or as the case may be urban council may in writing direct.

(4) As soon as possible after the close of the financial year of a local government authority the authority shall submit its accounts for audit to the auditors, who shall complete the audit not later than six months after the close of the financial year.

(5) Every authority shall permit the auditor to check any cash, investments or other assets in its possession or over which it has control and to have access at all times to all its accounts and all books, vouchers and papers relating to them.

[s. 48]

Liability for payment of audit fees

53.—(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a local government authority shall, within three months after the date of the signing by the auditor of the report on its accounts for the financial year concerned, pay to the auditor in respect of the services of the auditor such sum, not exceeding one per centum of the total expenditure of the authority which has been brought to account and reported on by the auditor for that financial year, as the Minister shall determine.

(2) Where the examination of accounts has, in the opinion of the Minister, made unusual demands on the time of the auditor as a result of unsatisfactory accounting or the occurrence of irregularities, the Minister may direct that a fee in excess of one per centum of the total expenditure of the local government authority shall be paid by the authority to the auditor.

(3) Where the auditor is not an officer or a department of the Government the sum to be paid by the authority to the auditor in respect of his services shall be such sum as may be agreed upon between the authority and the auditor.

Power to take evidence

54.-(1) For purposes of any examination of the accounts of a local government authority under this Part, the auditor may take evidence and examine witnesses upon oath or affirmation, which oath or affirmation the auditor is empowered to administer, and may by summons under his hand require all such persons as he may think fit to appear personally before him at a time and place specified in the summons papers, including the minutes of the proceeding of the authority or of any committee or joint committee, as the auditor may consider necessary for the examination.

(2) A person who when so required, without reasonable excuse-

- (a) neglects or refuses to comply with the terms of the summons;
- (b) having appeared, refuses to be examined on oath or affirmation or to take the oath or affirmation; or
- (c) having taken the oath or affirmation, refuses to answer the questions put to him, commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable for every neglect or refusal, to a fine not exceeding six hundred shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

[s. 50]

Auditors' report

55.—(1) The auditor shall make and sign a report to the local government authority on the accounts and the annual balance sheet and statement or abstract, and one copy each of the report together with the annual balance sheet and statement or abstract or a copy of it shall be sent to the Minister, the Regional Commissioner and the Director who shall table the report before the council.

(2) The auditor shall, in his report, draw attention to every item of expenditure charged in the accounts which is not authorised by law or which has not been sanctioned by the local government authority, and shall also draw attention to any deficiency or loss incurred by negligence or misconduct of any person accounting and to any sum which ought to have been but has not been brought to account by that person and shall certify the amount of that unlawful expenditure, deficiency or loss, or the sum which has not been brought to account.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not be construed as being in derogation of the power to surcharge persons conferred by section 58, and for the avoidance of doubt it is hereby expressly declared that the power to surcharge may be exercised before or after the auditor has drawn attention to any item, deficiency, loss or sum pursuant to subsection (2).

(4) A copy of the annual balance sheet and statement or abstract and of the report of the auditor in respect of local government authority shall be submitted by the Minister before the National Assembly; and may also be furnished to any inhabitant of the area of the authority concerned upon the payment of such fee, if any, as may be specified by resolution of the authority.

Publication of accounts and audit report

56. Every local government authority shall at its own offices and in such other manner as may be directed by the Regional Commissioner publish within its area-

- (a) the annual balance sheet and statement of abstract; and
- (b) any report on the accounts made and signed by the auditor, within six months after the close of the financial year to which the accounts relate or within six months of the receipt of the report of the auditor, as the case may be.

[s. 52]

Power to sanction certain expenditure

57. The local government authority may, subject to any provisions of financial memoranda in that behalf or to any general or specific directions of the Minister, authorise any item of expenditure charged in the accounts of an authority but not authorised by law or sanctioned by him earlier and which is pointed out as such by the auditor pursuant to section 55.

[s. 53]

Power to
surcharge

58.-(1) In this section the expression "Permanent Secretary" means the Permanent Secretary to the Ministry responsible for local government.

(2) Where, in consequence of the audit carried out by him, an auditor becomes aware of-

- (a) any payment made without due authority according to law;
- (b) any deficiency or loss occasioned by negligence or misconduct;
- (c) any failure to observe a policy of the highest thrift; or
- (d) any sum which ought to have been but was not brought to account, he shall report the matter to the Regional Commissioner who may, in the case of expenditure, disallow the same and in other cases call in question the sum concerned, and shall make a report thereon to the Chairman or Mayor of the local government authority who shall refer the report to the relevant committee of the authority, which shall consider every such report and thereafter shall advise the Permanent Secretary, whether in the opinion of that Committee it is appropriate that any officer be surcharged in respect of the payment deficiency, loss or sum concerned, or that disciplinary proceedings be instituted against an officer, or whether a surcharge should be made and disciplinary proceedings instituted.

(3) The person surcharged may, not later than thirty days from receipt of the confirmation of the surcharge, appeal to the Minister or, where the surcharge relates to an amount exceeding two thousand shillings, to the High Court against the surcharge.

(4) The Chief Justice shall make rules governing the procedure for making appeals to the High Court under this section.

(5) Every sum surcharged pursuant to this section shall be paid into the fund from which it is taken by the person surcharged within thirty days from the date upon which confirmation of the surcharge is given, or the decision on appeal is given, as the case may be, and where the sum is not paid the authority concerned may recover the sum from the person surcharged in any competent court and shall be entitled to be paid their reasonable costs and expenses in such proceedings.

(6) In any proceedings for the recovery of a surcharged sum, a certificate by the auditor subject to such modifications as may be necessary in consequence of any decision of the Minister or the High Court on appeal shall be conclusive evidence of the amount due and payable by the person concerned, and a certificate signed by the Chairman of the authority concerned or an officer whose duty it is to keep the accounts that the sum certified to be due has not been paid to him shall be conclusive evidence of non-payment, unless it is proved that the sum certified to be due has been paid since date of the certificate.
